

Meeting the Needs of the Poor

In this chapter, you read about Dorothy Day, an advocate for the Gospel who opened a house of hospitality. Research the needs of people in your own community. Use the template below to create a blog site to help others become aware of the needs you have identified. Be sure to title your blog!

