

Name

The Passion of Jesus

A cinquain is a five-line poem without rhyming words. An explanation of a cinquain poem and an example are found below.

Explanation Example

One-word title Disciples

Two words that describe the title following, learning

Three action words about the title listening, praising, believing

Four-word statement about the title Jesus is our teacher

One word that sums up the title Believers

Working with a small group of classmates, write a cinquain poem. Base yours on someone you met in today's Gospels stories: the crowd in Jerusalem, Jesus, Judas, Peter, or the disciples.

#11111111111111111111111111111111111111	11111111111111111111111111111
=
=		=
=		=
		=
=		=
=		=
=		=
=		=
=		Ξ
Ξ —
=		≡
=		≡
=		=
=		=
=		=
=		=
		=
		=
=		=
=		=
=		=
=		Ξ
=		≡
=		=
=		Ξ
=		=
=	Buunuunuunuunuunuunuunuunuunuunuunuunuun
	bu:	∄ 111111111111111111111111111111111111
	~3.
		mmmm F