

All Families Are Holy

1. Recall with the children that the Holy Family includes Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.
2. Write in the center of a piece of poster board, “All Families Are Holy.”
3. Ask the children to share what they know about the Holy Family. Share some insights of your own. Remind the children that every time there is kindness, or happiness, or sharing, these are holy times.
4. Record the responses on the poster board and review the responses with the children by reading them aloud. If time allows, invite the children to glue magazine photos of happy families on the poster.
5. Afterwards, hang the poster in a place where people can be reminded that all families are holy.
