

Message to the Youth of the World

In the summer of 2013, hundreds of thousands of youth and young adults from all over the world gathered to celebrate World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The event's message was rooted in the theme: Go make disciples of all nations. Research online to find out Pope Francis' message for World Youth Day. Then, write down some of his words that are most meaningful for you. Share what you have written with a friend or with family members.

"Go make disciples of all nations!"
