

Pray and Work

In this chapter you learned about the first three of the Ten Commandments. Saint Ignatius Loyola is attributed with the saying, "Pray as if everything depended on God and work as if everything depends on you." Use the space below to write how Saint Ignatius' advice can help us follow the first three Commandments.

