

Your Role Model

In the first column, write the name of a person that you look up to and admire. Under that person's name, list as many of their personal qualities that you admire that you can think of. Then, under Mary's name, list all the qualities that you admire about Mary. When you are finished, compare the two columns.

(Your Role Model)

Mary